"I remember when I was in college, it was a confusing time. I was trying to discern my own vocation, especially when I thought God may be calling me to become a priest. I am so thankful to have been placed at Newman Hall by my bishop. I can help young people who are living in the gray and living in mediocrity engage themselves into a life with Christ. Its a daily battle but I wouldn't want it any other way."

Going Away to COLLEGE?

Get Connected to Campus Ministry.

What are Newman Centers?

Newman Centers are places on campus that provide pastoral and ministry services to the Catholic student population. They are located on universities all throughout the country. Almost every major secular college campus has a Catholic presence through these Newman Centers. It is here where you can find your family; your home away from home. These centers and their people will welcome you with open arms and would love to meet with you in person on your campus visit.

Questions you will face:

- How will I handle life away from home?
- How will I meet people and make new friends?
- What organizations should I join?
- What can I do to ensure that I'm on the right track?
- Will I like my roommate?
- How will I fit in?
- What is my calling in life?
- Is this college really for me?
